Dear Roy:

Many thanks for your letter of 2 May and I am enclosing a copy of my talk before the U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

Since Allen has moved down here, we are able to see him more often and I think that the change has been good for him.

It was good of you to write me again and I enjoyed hearing about Margaret and Dean.

Clover joins me in sending kindest regards to you and Martha.

Sincerely,

Dear Allen:

The other night while listening to a television news cast, Doug Edwards mentioned a speech you had made before a group the early part of this week on the necessity of trying to halt the present recession, due to the fact that Russia was going ahead with production while our production was falling off. If you have a copy of your speech and do not object to sending it to me, I would certainly appreciate receiving it.

I suppose you know that Margaret and Dean came by and spent a day with us in Florida at Keewaydin Club this winter. It was wonderful to see them and our only regret was that they did not stay longer. I hope young Allen is improving.

Martha joins me in best regards to Clover and yourself.

Sincerely,
